AND LOOK WHO ELSE IS COMING!

On behalf of the Committee, have a pleasant Christmas and holiday break, and we hope you're rewarded with some quality time with friends and family. Play and travel safely.

By the time our first 2018 gig comes around (Feb 04), you'll no doubt be itching to hear a bit of live jazz – umpteen Muzak versions of White Christmas wears a bit thin after a while!

Lots to look forward to again in the New Year with a programme promising the same great variety that was presented during 2017. Thanks for your support.

IN 2018 – WHY NOT? JOIN THE COMMITTEE

A huge thanks to not only the musicians and singers that so warmly entertain but also to the Committee: Carole, Judy, Kay, and Sue who have the unenviable task of collecting money at the front desk on gig days and to Pietro, for his dedication in putting together the wonderful music programme we've grown accustomed to. We're truly spoilt.

- have your say in what bands or jazz style you'd like presented.
- meet once a month for an hour
- distribute half-a-dozen posters every couple of months [15 mins].
- help with set-up at gigs once a month [15-20 minutes].

SPONSORS

Lismore City Bowling Club remains the home of the Lismore Jazz Club. The City Bowlo has been a great and precious supporter and sponsor of LJC since April 2005 – we couldn't survive without them.

From time to time, because of the unavailability of the Bowling Club or visiting bands' tour dates, we stage at the Tatts Hotel in the city – also Thursday Night Jazz at the Tatts presents a good mix of small bands.

If you're looking for a bit of serious hi-fi gear, (especially for your precious jazz vinyls) pop in and talk to Nat at Living Entertainment North Coast at the carpark end of the Summerland Arcade in Woodlark Street. A knowledgeable bloke and a great supporter of the LJC. Check it out: www.lenc.com.au
